

Searching for jobs online

Tip 1: Type the key words of the job you are looking for in Google. For example Recycling Operative Jobs London OR Sales Assistant Jobs London. This will provide you with a list of jobsites advertising these positions.

Tip 2: Research company websites and check out their Careers or Job Vacancies section.

To give you a start, we have put together a list of some popular jobsites.

- www.indeed.co.uk
- www.cv-library.co.uk
- www.jobsgopublic.com
- www.retailchoice.com (jobs in the retail industry)
- www.reed.co.uk
- www.totaljobs.com
- www.monster.co.uk
- <https://jobs.theguardian.com/>
- www.gov.uk/jobsearch
- www.fejobs.com (jobs in colleges)
- www.eteach.com (teaching and education)
- www.careerstructure.com (jobs in construction)
- www.gumtree.com (all types of jobs)
- www.manpower.co.uk
- www.horticulturejobs.co.uk (jobs in gardening, landscape and park maintenance)
- www.ccskills.org.uk (careers advice and guidance within the creative industry – music, theatre, design etc..)